WHY ARE YOU HERE?
WHY ARE YOU HERE?

Local governments are on the frontlines of managing the impacts associated with weather and climate variability.
WHY ARE YOU HERE?

• Existing community priorities are at risk.

• Planning now can save money.

• Local action matters – a lot.
WHY ARE YOU HERE?

Given that role, you have the opportunity to not only respond to but also plan and prepare for the local impacts of climate.
WHY ARE YOU HERE?

Local governments and the communities they serve have a great deal of leverage in the battle to bolster their community’s preparedness and resilience.
